Questions I want to ask

- [ ] Can we start by talking about what's going well for me?
- [ ] Can we write my goals in my own words?
- [ ] How will my budget be figured, and can I see the details?
- [ ] What generic resources should I apply for?
- [ ] Who will do each next step, and by when?
- [ ] When will I get a copy of my IPP?
- [ ] If I disagree with a decision, how do I appeal?
- [ ] Who do I contact if something changes before the next meeting?

What helps me during the meeting

- [ ] Breaks
- [ ] Pictures
- [ ] A slower pace
- [ ] An interpreter
- [ ] Someone to take notes
- [ ] The agenda ahead of time
- [ ] I speak first
- [ ] A quiet room

After the meeting

- Ask when you'll get a copy of your IPP.
- Write down each next step, who will do it, and by when.
- If you disagree with a decision, you have 60 days to appeal a Notice of Action, and 30 days to keep your services the same during the appeal. Free help: OCRA, (714) 621-0563.
